Section 10: INFORMAL ACTION BY DIRECTORS: Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of directors, or any action that may be taken at a meeting of directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all directors.

Section 11: VACANCIES: Except as provided in Section 7 above, any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the then directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Directors elected to fill such vacancies or directorships shall meet the qualifications for directors set forth elsewhere in these bylaws. In no case, may a vacancy continue for longer than six months or until the next annual meeting of the members, whichever occurs first. The board of directors shall have sent to the member's notice of the reason for the vacancy and the name of the interim director.

ARTICLE SIX

Officers

Section 1: OFFICERS: The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice president secretary, and treasurer and such other officers as may be elected or appointed by the directors, as they shall deem appropriate. The board shall describe officer's duties. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person except the office of president and secretary.

Section 2: ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE: The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually from and by the board of directors subsequent of to the annual meeting.

Section 3: REMOVAL: Any officer elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the officer removed.

Section 4: VACANCIES: A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, may be filled by the board of directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 5: PRESIDENT: The president shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and, subject to the control of the board of directors, shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the corporation. The President shall preside at all meetings of the members, the board of directors and, in general, shall perform the duties of the president, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president.

Section 6: VICE PRESIDENT: In the absence of the president or in the event of his death, removal or his inability to act, the vice president shall perform the duties of the president, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president. The vice president shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the president or by the board of directors.

Section 7: SECRETARY: The secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the members and of the board of directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws or as required by law; be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the corporation; keep a register of the mailing address and email address of each member which shall be furnished to the secretary by such member; and in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the president or by the board of directors.

Section 8: TREASURER: The treasurer may be elected from the members of the Board of Directors or a qualified person may be appointed by the Board. An Appointed Treasurer shall be an Ex-Officio non-voting member of the Board. The treasurer shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation; receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys in the name of the corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected by the board of directors, with full power to delegate deposit and check writing authority to managers; an appointed Treasurer may only delegate such authority with the prior approval of the Board; and in general perform all the duties incident to the office of treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the president or by the board of directors. The Treasurer shall give an annual financial report to the members at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Committees

Committees not having and exercising the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation may be designated by resolution of the board of directors. The board of directors shall appoint the chairman and members of such committees. A member of the board of directors must be on all committees. Any member of any committee may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation shall be served by such removal.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Indemnification

Section 1: INDEMNIFICATION: The corporation shall indemnify a person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to any completed, pending, or threatened action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation, provided, that the person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Indemnification may include reimbursement of expenses, attorney fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by a person in connection with the action or proceeding; provided, however, if the action or proceeding was, is, or is threatened to be by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification may not be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person has been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, except to the extent the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for expense which the court considers proper. The termination of an action or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not create a presumption that the person did not meet the requisite standard of conduct set forth in this paragraph.

To the extent that a director or officer of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of an action or proceeding referred to in Section 1 of this article, or in defense of a claim, issue, or matter in the action or proceeding, he shall be indemnified against expenses and attorney fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense.

Section 2: NONEXCLUSIVITY: The indemnification provided by this article is not exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under an agreement, vote of disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding the office. The right to indemnification continues as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and inures to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person.

Section 3: INSURANCE: The corporation will purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in that capacity, or arising out of that status, whether or not the corporation has the power to indemnify him against the liability under the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE NINE
Books and Records

The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall also keep minutes of the proceedings of its members and board of directors and shall keep at the principal office a record giving the names and addresses of the members. Any books and records of the corporation may be inspected by any member, or his agent or attorney, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

ARTICLE TEN
Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the Alaska Nonprofit Corporation Act, AS 10.20, or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE ELEVEN
Amendment of Bylaws

These bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the board of directors at a meeting held after at least ten days' notice setting out the proposed alteration or amendment of the proposed new bylaws.

ARTICLE TWELVE
Dissolution

Upon dissolution of this corporation, all assets of the corporation shall be applied and distributed as follows:

- (a) All liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall be paid, satisfied, and discharged or adequate provision shall be made therefore.
- (b) Assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred, or conveyed in accordance with said requirements.
- (c) No part of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed to or insure to the benefit of any member, officer, or director of the corporation.
- (d) The remaining assets of the corporation shall be transferred and conveyed to a corporation under the State of Alaska having substantial similar powers and objectives and engaged in activities similar to the Birchwood Recreation and Shooting Park, Inc. This corporation shall be selected by a majority vote of record members who have held membership in the Birchwood Recreation and Shooting Park, Inc. in excess of 45 days. If no such corporation exists, or the members fail to select a corporation, the remaining assets of the corporation shall be transferred or conveyed to the State division having jurisdiction of the corporation.
